Thieves Drove Up to Salvatore Manzella's Liquor Store with Away the Valuables.

TWO BLOCKS AWAY FROM POLICE HEADQUARTERS.

Mulberry Street Station, but Without Fear.

Salvatore Manzella, importer of wines and liquors, at No. 190 Elizabeth street, just two and a half blocks from Police adquarters and three blocks from the Mulberry street station, lost to-day an 800-pound safe, in which he had stored

The burglary happened in the small, still hours when the coppers yawn and herently of her wanderings with Corthe desk sergeants snooze. Beating his dova. weary tramp up and down Elisabeth street from Bleecker to Hester, Policeman O'Dea first learned of the burglary when the excited owner discovered at 6.30 o'clock A. M. that his jewels and his money and his 800-pound The clergyman, according to Deacon safe were gone.

Manzella's store covers the entire at No. 102 Elizabeth street, not very far sidered unlikely that when the trouble from his store. About 3 o'clock a wagon was seen in front of Manzella's place reinstated. by some Italian workmen who rise early to go to work. They paid no attention to the wagon other than to take note that the horse looked as if he

Three hours later Manzella opened the front door of his shop. He had a suspicion that things were not right on account of the plentitude of air that was in his place. The back door was still high. open and the draught nearly took him off his feet. Manzella's subsequent in- mighty unhealthy right now," remarked strain upon her sister keeps up the vestigation left him speechless.

hung lifeless by his sides. The safe—it, too, was gone.

Then there was a great deaf of noise and almost as much gesticulation. The policeman patrolling his beat was soon on the scene and in short time Head quarters, whose shadows of safety were thought to extend at least three and a half blocks, was notified. Acting Caption, has put two of his most trusted men—Sullivan and Green—on the case.

Has to Patrol Eight Blocks.

Patrolman O'Dea has given an existence of the interfered in the interest of humanity, so far as publicity was concerned, has fertured to Brooklyn.

The postponement of the hearing in thought Chirch to diversify the Conklin Methodsu Episopyal Chirch to fragrant honeysuckles "for Julia." She was allowed to present it to the girl in person. Julia Bowne buried her face in the mass of bloom and wept bitterly.

"But they were happy tears," Miss Emma Bowne said to-day, "My sister realied then that the whole outside world was not against. That this little child trusted her and believed in her."

Scuth River women are bitter against.

Patrolman O'Dea has given an explanation which has satisfied Capt.
Lasky. Alone he has eight blocks to patrol from midnight to 8 A. M. Acting Capt. Lasky had nine men last night to send out for duty instead of the twenty which is the usual number. Vacations and sick leaves have reduced his force.

cations and sick leaves his force.
The burglars worked easily and surely.
After entering the store by snapping the iron bars that guarded the window on the side they packed the safe out of the store to the rear door, which leads into the hallway of the tenement. of the store to the rear door, which leads into the hallway of the tenement. Then they rolled the safe to the street, and, placing it in the wagon, drove off. The occupants of the tenement say they heard nothing. In the rear there is a court, around which are other tenements. So far the police have found no one who knows of the burglars or the safe.

Some of the Italians who have a suspicion as to the identity of the burglars say they are kindly men, who rarely create a disturbance and at no time care to arouse the police.

BADLY BURNED BY EXPLODING LAMP

Blazing Fluid Thrown Over Man's Body and Nearly Destroyed Whole House Before the Firemen Arrived.

In fighting fire in his home, Shore road, near Manhattan railroad crossing, Charles N. Nicholis was badly burned. The fire started when Mr. Nicholls started to light an alcohol lamp. The started to light an alcohol lamp. The lamp exploded and the blazing fluid was thrown all over his body.

By rolling in blankets he saved himself from being burned to death. The house caught fire and the engines were called. Before their arrival the house was almost destroyed. The loss was estimated at $2,000.

Mr. Nicholis was taken to Coney Island Hospital.

HOFFMAN HOUSE TO STAY.

Building Is to Come Down.

James P. Caddagan, manager of the Hoffman House, says that through some error many persons have come to the conclusion that the Hoffman House is to

"Of course that isn't true," said Mr. Caddagan. "Only the old Hoffman House, which is the middle building on Broadway, fifty feet south of Twenty-Afth street and 100 feet north of Twentyfourth street and low leet north of I wenty-fourth street, is to be torn dow; in April and on that sets a new building, fourteen stories high, is to be erected. That is the only change contemplated, but my head aches through weariness in responding to, inquiries which were the result of inaccurate information concerning our plans."

her home, at No. 231 East Twenty-fifth street to-day, fell to the yard and fractured her skull. She was taken to the Presbyterian Hospital.

STOLE HIS SAFE MISS BOWNE MAY GO MAD; FULL OF JEWELS DACTOR CORDONA HADDY PASTOR CORDOVA HAPPY

Horse and Wagon and Carted Girl Who Eloped with Minister Is Denounced by Women, Who Defend the Man, and He Now Seeks Reinstatement in Church.

It was reported in South River, N. J., except for one brief drive with her In the Shadow, Too, of the to-day that Miss Julia Bowne, the brother. beautiful girl who eloped with her pastor, the Rev. J. F. Cordova, is under Robbers Seemingly Worked medical treatment and is in danger of look upon the repentant girl.

> When Conover Bowne, the girl's father, was asked about this report he

"My daughter is as well as expect; that is all I will say."

Dr. J. E. Wood, who is said to have advised the girl's removal to some distant place, where she can forget the about $1,000 in jewelry, silverware and painful incidents of the last few months noney. Burgiars in the early morning also declined to talk about the rumor. ight got into his place and carted off Neighbors of the Bownes, however, the safe, leaving nothing but footmarks say that the report is well founded. for the sleuths of the department to They tell of hearing the girl's agonizing sobs all night long. Sometimes she is violently hysterical, and raves inco-

Bownes Expected to Move. It is understood that as soon as the charges against the Rev. J. F. Cordova have been disposed of the Bownes will move to another part of the State. George Farr, has handed in his resigis little doubt. Friends of Cordova. ground floor of what is otherwise a however, are in consultation with tenement four stories high. He lives Bishop Fitzgerald, and it is not conhas blown over the pastor will be Headed by the women of the church a reaction has set in in Cordova's favor. Several members of the church who read his open letter to the newspapers believe him more sinned against than sinning. They argue that the pastor was the victim of circumstances.

Villagers Bitter Against Pastor. Outside the fold, however, feeling is one of the villagers to-day. He had a fear that a burglary had | The Cordovas' household effects have taken place and his immediate hurry was to see how much they had left him. When he reached his office, which is partitioned off from the rest of the store, his eyes bulged and his hands store, his eyes bulged and his hands hung lifeless by his sides. The safe—it, too, was gone.

"Cordova would find South River

The little daughter of the good old too, was gone.

"Shameless!" cried the girl's former intimates as they turned away from Julia's apparently gay greeting. They did not know that behind the smiles were bitter tears; did not know that what when Policeman Doyle ran up and said: seemed to them a fling in convention's face was the effort of a broken-hearted woman to forget the past and to try to make the village forget too. But Julia Bowne is to-day treading the same cruel path as Hawthorne's heroine trod. Next Sunday will see her cup of bitterness illed to overflowing. Her resignation and the reason for it will be read out from the pulpit in the the man who proved her ultimate undoters, she will be able to see her late windows the words that proclaim her | shame publicly.

"Just Punishment." Says Father. "It is her punishment," says her ly, but cast in a mould that recogmoral law.

tered window, behind which has daughter is sobbing her heart out. But, as yet, say the neighbors, he has made no sign of forgiveness. If Cordova's name is mentioned he grips his sledge the tighter and his lips come together in a thin line, but that is all. Conover Bowne is a good deal of a sphinx to the neighbors; but he is a good man, a staunch friend.

Julia's sister Emma told an Evening World reporter to-day that if the family fear she will go mad. The girl eats scarcely enough to sustain life her."

South River women are bitter against that time she has not left her room, Ye must pay for one by one.

WEDS IN SECRET

Sixteen-Year-Old Minnie De Nyse Married to Capt. Alexander Sendt Naarly a Month Ago! and Father Protests. $300 Bail.

When Minnie De Nyse, the only aughter of Capt. Henry De Nyse, of Stapleton, S. I., one of the oldest towboat captains in the New York harbor, announced to-day that she was married amazement was expressed by the Alexander Sendt, who is in command of one of the big tugboats of the Balling of one of the big tugboats of the Balling on the state is timore and Ohio Railroad. He is well known and popular on Staten Island. He is twenty-six years old and has been living with the De Nyse family since byshood. When still a boy he was taken to sea by Capt. De Nyse, and he has always been looked upon as one of the family.

Objection was made to the marriage because of the youth of the girl, who is not quite seventeen.

On June & Capt. Sendt and Miss De Nyse went to Mariners' Harbor, where they were married by the Rev. Dr. Joseph Howurd, pastor of the Trinity M. E. Church. The girl, it is said, gave her age as nineteen.

Capt. De Nyse's son, Harry, said to-day that Capt. Sendt had been requested to leave his parents' house. He said also that he thought his parents would make an effort to have the marriage annuiled.

Capt. De Nyse's swell known to yachtsmen and has been present at all the international yacht races, when he has been in command of the stakeboat or press boat.

Alexander Sendt, who is stated, the complainant. "I was look—that held the razor and felt its stael, the complainant. "I was look—that held the razor and from the yard, when I saw a big black cat trying to turn the yard, when I saw a big black cat trying to turn the yard, when I saw a big black cat trying to the word, when I saw a big black cat trying to the word, when I saw a big black cat trying to the word, when I saw a big black cat trying to the word, when I saw a big black cat trying to the word, when I saw a big black cat trying to the word, when I saw a big black cat trying to the word, when I saw a big black cat trying to the word in the yard, when I saw a big black cat trying to the word, when I saw a big black cat trying to the word, when I saw a big black cat trying to the word, when I saw a big black cat trying to the word, when I saw a big black cat trying to the word, when I saw a big black cat trying to the word, when I saw a big black cat trying

SLOCUM VICTIM'S WILL FILED

Mrs. Hencken Leaves $100,000 in Trust to Her Husband.

The first will of a victim of the Sio rum disaster filed in the Surrogate's

GIRL FRACTURES SKULL.

Falls from Balcony of Home to the Yard.

Clara Pochlandt. six years oid, while playing on the balcony in the rear of her home, at No. 231 East Twenty-fifth street to-day, fell to the yard and fractured her skull. She was taken to be presbyterian Hospital.

IMAN ARRESTED FOR KILLING A CAT

S. P. C. A. with Cruelty to stealing it.

Magistrate Cornell in the Jefferson Market Court to-day decided that it pay back the $45 at the rate of $1 a was not justifiable to kill a cat which week. had disturbed a neighborhood by its cries, and held Patrick McCrane, forty years old, janitor of the flat-houses at something moving under his head. He would not disturb the tenants any more. Magistrate Cornell found that a clear case had been made aginst McCrane

NO USE FOR SLOCUM HULK.

Commissioner McAdoo Now Will Have to Dispose of It.

District-Attorney Jerome, United States District-Attorney Burnett and States District-Attorney Burnett and fills the air you breathe with germ-the Coroner have sent word to Commis-killing, disease destroying and healsioner McAdoo that they have no further use for the hulk of the Slocum. The Commissioner said he will now have to dispose of the wreck. He does not want to sell it to be used for exhibition purposes, and will not do so un-less compelled to by the city.

POLICEMEN FIRED

Chased Innocent Man for Burglar and One Bullet Hit Memorandum Book in Pocket Over Air, When Policeman Accost-

A memorandum book saved Edward Limburg, of No. 431 Pacific avenue, Jersey City, from death to-day when he was fired upon by three policemen, who nistock him for a burgiar.

Limburg is a respectable man, and he is employed by the Pennsylvania rail-This drive, taken the day after her Being unable to sleep before road. return, was to have constituted a test dawn he went to Van Vorst Park in as to how the little community would Jersey avenue. Directly across the street from where he sat is the Union League Club. Limburg had only been when he was joined by a stranger. He and the stranger talked for a time,

"Both you men are under arrest." The stranger submitted quietly to arest, but Limburg, thoroughly frightened, broke away. Doyle whistled for help and Policemen Morash, Burns and Collins started after Limburg. For several blocks they chased him and then they drew their revolvers and began firing. Fearing that he was going to white-spired church where she first met be killed Limburg stopped and the po-Mcemen came up. He was placed under ing. From the window of her little arrest and a call sent in for the patrol room, darkened by tightly closed shut- wagon. Before the patrol wagon arrived the policemen saw that their associates crowding into the church; prisoner's clothes were on fire and that will be able to hear through the open a hole has been burned over his hearth. "You are shot," said one of the police men.

"I don't know whether I am or not. answered Limburg. "Something struck me over the heart when I turned to father, himself an elder of the church, see if you men were near me. I expect thin lipped, square jawed, not unkind- I am shot. The pain is pretty bad." An ambulance was called and the nizes no degree in the infraction of a surgeon made a hasty examination of Limburg. There was a distinct As he wields his hammer in the forge bruise over the heart, but the flesh his eyes often stray up to the shut- was not broken. An examination of his clothes showed a memorandum book in the coat pocket on the left side. In the coat pocket on the left side.

In this book was lodged a bullet. It had passed almost through the book and was burried in the pages. An eighth of an inch further and it would have entered Limburg's fiesh.

Limburg, demanding to know what had been his offense, and declaring that he was a reputable and respectable citizen, was led away to jail, charged with being a suspicious person.

WITH HIS RAZOR

Protege of Bowery Barber Badly Cut Up with Weapon He Drew in Alleged Attempt to Steal Watch and Money.

interfered in the interest of humanity, has forgiven him. For Cordova, now that the church trial has been postitude that the church trial has been postitude to poned, possibly indefinitely, the way is easy. But in Julia Bowne South River has a Hester Prynne.

Confined to Her Room.

Never was an explation more pitiless than the one that this girl must face.
Almost a week ago she returned. Since

South River women are bitter against With the men, while the latter was sleeping. Antonio de Luca, nineteen years old, a barber, was lashed so severely about the head. The man is with his family and is happy, he says in a letter to a South River friend. It is Julia Bowne who is experiencing to rob his employer while the latter was sleeping. Antonio de Luca, nineteen years old, a barber, was lashed so severely about the head, face and neck that it was feared for a happy, he says in a letter to a South River friend. It is Julia Bowne who is experiencing to rob his employer while the latter was sleeping. Antonio de Luca, nineteen years old, a barber, was lashed so severely about the head, face and neck that it was feared for a happy, he says in a letter to a South River friend. It is Julia Bowne who is experiencing to the bitterest extent the fellows.

Kight has forgiven him. For Cordova, With the men, who wever, the feeling is very different, and Cordova has wisely decided to give obtained to give obtained to represent the fellows.

At any rate, it is the woman in the case who is suffering most cruelly. Was lashed so severely about the head, face and neck that it was feared for a happy, he says in a letter to a South River friend. It is Julia Bowne who is experiencing to the bitterest extent the feare was sleeping. Antonio obtained the latter was sleeping and is the latter was sleeping. Antonio obtained to reduce the latter was sleeping and is the latter was sleeping and is the latter was sleeping. In attempting to rob his employer while the latter was sleeping. Antonio obtained the latter was sleeping and is the latter wa charge of felonious assault. He was released later in Essex Market Court, while the victim was held for trial on charge of attempted robbery.

Dominick Romendema is a prosperous barber owning four shops. He lives over the largest one at No. 13 Bowery, and with him live four of the seven men he employs in that place. A few weaks ago he gave employment to De Luca, who comes from the same town in Italy that Romendema halls from. Flat-House Janitor Charged by On the Fourth of July Romendema missed $45 and charged De Luca with

As the story goes, De Luca admitted Animals and Held for Trial in taking the money and said he spent it. Romendema decided not to prosecute and gave him another chance. De Luca went to work for him again last Monday, with the understanding he was to Romandama save that at about 2.20 A M. to-day he was awakened by feeling other members of the family. The girl of the flat-houses at the first revealed her secret to her mother and then her father and brother were informed.

The girl said her husband was Capt. Alexander Sendt, who is in command of one of the big tugboats of the Baltimore and Ohlo Railroad. He is well known and popular on Staten Island. He is twenty-six years old and has been living with the De Nyse family since boyhood. When still a boy he was taken to sea by Capt. De Nyse, and he has always been looked upon as one of the family.

Objection was made to the marriage because of the youth of the girl, who is not quite seventeen.

On June 25 Cent Sendt and Miss D.

Years old, janitor of the flat-houses at Nos. 15, 17 and 19 Abingdon Square, in $300 bail for trial in the Court of Special Sends and saw a hand and arm drawing his waistcoat. In which he seessions. McCrane is charged with Sessions. McCrane is charged with cruelty to animals. McCrane is charged with Sessions. McCrane is charged with Sessions. McCrane is charged with Geessions. McCrane is charged with Sessions. McCrane is charged with Geessions. McCrane is charged with Sessions. McCrane is charged with Geessions. McCrane is charged with Sessions. McCrane is charged with Sessions. McCrane is charged with Sessions. McCrane is charged with Geessions. McCrane is charged with Sessions. McCrane is c

Medicine.

Hyomei, the Guaranteed Catarrh Cure, Prescribed by

No one should confound Hyomei with patent medicines that are advertised to cure catarrh. It is as far superior to them all as the diamond is more valuable than cheap glass. Their composition is secret, but Hyomei gives its formula to all reputable physicians.

Its base is the valuable eucalyptus oil, famous for its antiseptic quali-This is combined with aromatic and healing gums and balsams, making a pure liquid which, when used in the Hyomei pocket inhaler, ing powers that restore health to every part of the throat, nose and lungs. Hegeman & Co., 200 Broadway, are under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.

Open Saturday Night Until

Vogel Brothers 42nd Str. Cor. 8th Ave.

10 o'Clock.

Sale of White Lawn Waists at 98C This is the greatest white lawn shirt waist of ering of the season. The waists are such as are sold elsewhere at $1.75 and $2. It's a rare opportunity for women who want to possess the dantiest and and most charming waists way under price. The cut alongside shows one of the waists, and there are a do en other brand-new models here to choose from. These $1.50 and $2 waists all on sale at 98c.

Sale of Other Dainty Waists. White and bleck Jap. silk waists reduced

White lown waists, elaborately trimmed, reduced to $1.98.

$1 Jag. silk waists, reduced to $2.98.
Waters of dotted Swiss and Lawns, reduced 10 52 93. $5. 16 and $7 waists, reduced to $3.98.

Sale of Dotted Swiss $2.98

Here's a bargain that will ring true to every woman. These shirt waist suits, charmingly made with all the daintiness of summer style. Exactly like cut alongside, sizes 32 to 42. They come in fancy dotted and embroidered Swiss, on white, cadet, royal and navy blue grounds. Waists and sleeves tucked, side-plaited skirts. These are $5 summer dresses; special at $2.98.

Sale of Brilliantine Runabout Skirts at $2.98 We place on special sale 150 WHITE, BLUE and BLACK brilliantine skirts in the new 9-gore knife-plaited model. Regular $4.50 skirts, at $2.98.

Sale of $8.50 Voile Runabout Skirts at $4.98 These skirts are made in the new 17-gore knifeplaited model; also skirts of BLACK Panama cloth. All on special sale at $4.98.

Sale of 50 Dozen Girls' 79c Suspender Dresses at These make splendid summer dresses for girls ages 4 to 12. Same style as shown in cut. Colors pink. blue and old rose, in fancy plaid chambrays -white guimpes. Regular $1.50 dresses; special at 79c.

Sale of 75 Dozen Girls' 69c Low-Neck Dresses at Special sale of these cool dresses for girls ages 4 to 14. Same style as cut alongside; low neck and short sleeves, finished with ruffle, edged with lace, white grounds, with blue, pink and red figures. Instead of

MEN'S $10 and $12 WORSTED SUITS

A midsummer special that will make a busy week-splendidly fitting suits of firm medium weight fabrics, chiefly in $4.25 in the fashion that's

The MONEY PLANK in The Surprise Store's PLATFORM declare's for Double Value.

The Wholesale Stocks Are On Sale at Retail

Lightest weight garments full time every day.

The outlet for their hopsacking and tweed, with vests 5.00 in season and out of season.

Men's Summer Suits. The Surprise Store's Men's Serge Suits. Absolutely permanent blue serge of pure all - wool worsted-a new suit free them fails to

What could surpass the men's suits of Clay serge, of Scotch tweet and of silk-and-worsted that are massed in this $10 and $12 Manufacturer's Midsummer Sale at.....

Trousers for Every Man and Young Man.

An astonishingly good | Handsome striped and | Very choice pure all wool worsted Trousers, quality cheviot, plain plain fabrics, fashionable and durable Trousers in sizes to suit every body

to suit everybody

every pattern and design a s 3.50
very select and figured, made up into men's $1 trousers .....

Summer Underwear, excellent Balbriggan ..... 23c Summer Shirts of reliable Madras ..... STRAW HATS Go sailing out, the very 23c, 45c, 95c Boys' Chambray Russian Blouse Suits.

Boys' Tweed Norfolk and double-breasted Suits ... 1,50 Boys' extra good all-wool Knee Pants ...... 25c MEN'S SOLID TAUNTON

CALF SHOES. Good reliable leather through and through. OPEN UNTIL 10 P. M. SATURDAYS.

THE SURPRISE STORE

132 to 146 West 14th St., | | Third Ave., N. W. Cor. 83d St.

Between 6th and 7th Aves. | One Block from "L" Station.

STORE CLOSES AT 1 P. M. SATURDAY THE BIG STORE

Double "S. & H." Green Trading Stamps Saturday Moraing from 8.30 till 12 o'Clock. Thereafter Single Stamps Until C osing Hour

Women's Shirt Waist Suits At 1.00 and 1.50 Stylish Creations That

> Are All the Rage Now. A Saturday morning sale of liveliest interest. Beautiful new Suits at prices so low that one is almost impelled to doubt them. But the Suits will be here to-morrow, and eagerly await your coming. The materials

Sheer White Lawns, Fancy Madras, Linen Batiste, Shepherd Che:k Per:ales and Dai .ty Dimiti:s.

Charming colorings, natty figures and stripes. The illustration pictures their attractiveness. Some are prettily plated: others neatly tucked. Some have lace insertions and embroidery. All have fancy stock collars and bishop sleeves. Insteplength skirts. Some have contrasting color

Men's Summer Outing Suits

COATS and TROUSERS.

Single and Double-breasted Coats. Some are 14 silk lined. The fabrics include Flannels of soft texture, and Homespuns in a variety of styles, designs and

We can fit men of regular and stout

The garments are 4.50 ideally dressy. Simply

Sood Summer Shoes

Saturday Morning at About 1-2 Price.

Our phenomenally successful "Double Value" Since Sale offers numerous bar-gains of an unusually attractive character for to-morrow morning. The particular WOMEN'S $3.00 TAN MEN'S $3.50 OX-1.45

WOMEN'S $2.00 OX-MEN'S 3.50 SHOES 980 Hundreds of other marvellous'y good Shoe inducements. No bet er time and place to equip yourself with footwear for the Summer and Fall than at The Big Store (Consolidated Shoe Stores, Second Floor.)

Pure Wines and Liquors.

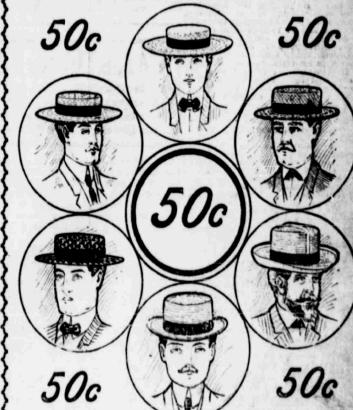

Yale

They're high priced, but money can'buy better quality; Manhatian 1.25 or Martini, in full quart bottles, per yah. d.od; tu. quart. MOUNT VERNON RYE; per gal. 2.50 CHERRIES IN MARASCHINO, choices, large, ripe cherries, full quart, 59e, vermouth, finest quality, full qt. 35e, the mouth, finest quality, full qt. 35e, the mouth, finest quality, full qt. 35e, the mouth, finest quality, full qt. 35e, the mouth of the

Stirring Sale of Men's Straw Hats To-Morrow Forenoon at

Sennits, Splits, Mackinaws, Rough-and-Ready Yeddo Feather-Weights. The Most Sweeping and Astonishing Sale in Greater New York. (Main Floor, Early)

pings. Sa ur. 1.00 and 1.50 day morning.

Apparel Sections. 2d Floor, Front.)

Saturday Morning at $4.50!

colorings. builds with equal celerity.

remarkable values at